

SECOND SUNDAY OF EPIPHANY

Today's readings inspire us to reflect on being called. What about our own call - we wouldn't be a part of the church if we weren't called. So know that we can make a difference and do something about it. Share with others what God is like, what God has done in our life. Let us live out our calling.

Andrew runs to his beloved brother Simon and brings him to Jesus. The called becomes the caller.

Do not worry about how to do it. God will provide the words. God will provide the means and the way.

May the light of Epiphany lead us to the glory and the responsibility of being called by God.

Welcome! Especially if you are a visitor. Please make yourself known to one of the Wardens, Sidespeople, or the Clergy. Members of other Churches are welcome to receive Communion. If you do not wish to receive Communion, please come up for a blessing.

REVD. ANDY DOVEY RETIREMENT

At the end of this month Revd. Andy Dovey will retire as the Lead for Chaplaincy & Spiritual Care with Bereavement Services at Croydon University hospital.

Andy has worked tirelessly in this role and we are very grateful for his many years of compassionate service.

We wish him well and pray that he, and his wife Karen, will be richly blessed in their retirement season.
