

FOURTH SUNDAY AFTER TRINITY

Churches across the world are in a time in the religious calendar known as ' Ordinary Time'. This year there is nothing which could be considered as normal and so it is a quite extraordinary time for all of us. Sunday Bible readings from now on will focus on the teachings of Jesus about living our ordinary Christian lives. Whilst there might not be anything special going on, perhaps for the next weeks this is the really important stuff, getting on with being disciples, living out the teachings of Jesus day by day. I suppose this is the time which really matters, where we show we mean what we say, by doing the things Jesus commanded.

FUNERALS

A number of funerals are happening over the next couple of weeks. The funeral for Joanna Corbin's mum, Evril, is on Wednesday 8th July, 11.00am, Holy Innocents Church. Doreen (Claudette) Husbands' funeral is on Friday 10th July, at St Jude with St Aidan, time not known at time of writing this. Dudley Yearwood's funeral will take place at St Luke's Church on 14th July at 10.00am. We hold in our prayers all those who are mourning the passing of their loved ones. May the souls of the faithful departed Rest in Peace and Rise in Glory.

DATES FOR YOUR DIARY

An invitation from St Luke's - We are really excited to welcome the Colares Ensemble to St Luke's this Sunday at 3pm, for the start of our Summer recital series.

Escape the heat of the summer, to the relative cool of St Luke's for an hour of great music.

The concert is free, but we will be taking a retiring collection, which will be shared between the musicians and community music projects at St Luke's.

All are welcome!

A reminder that the Tryptych Singers are at St Luke's on Saturday 4th July. The concert begins at 6.30pm.

The South Norwood Community Fair is taking place on Sunday 5th July 11.00am till 6.00pm, in South Norwood Recreation Ground.

Saturday 11th July, IMAGO DEI – Made in God's Image, called to create, at Holy Innocents Church and Hall. An interactive exploration of the Holy Spirit in art, music, poetry, readings, and bible study.

Expect talks, panels, workshops, worship, creative showcases and honest conversations designed to encourage bold, Spirit-led creativity.

Please join everyone for tea, coffee and refreshments after the service today.

Welcome to the United Benefice of Holy Innocents and St. Mark, South Norwood

United together in Christ, shining Christ's light in our community
